ATTENTION ALL LIBRARIANS

The Warren County Library Association will be meeting Wednesday, August 6, at 3:00 p.m. in the Program Room of the Bowling Green Public Library. All types of librarians are invited. Efforts are being made to develop a strong county library organization to enhance cooperation, understanding and community/government support.

New materials recently released from the Kentucky Historical Society will be presented as a part of the program.

PLEASE MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO ATTEND!

---Dr. Earl Wassom

DAVID PAYNE leaves us at the end of this month. The Paynes will be moving to Miami where David will be attending graduate school.

The Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts (North Carolina) has loaned the KENTUCKY MUSEUM an exhibit of 99 photographs of ceramics, furniture, metals, paintings and textiles made in the South before 1821. The exhibit, "Decorative Arts of the South", will be on display now through August 31. Most of the artifacts pictured are still in private collections and have never been seen by the public. Their diversity illustrates the cultural sophistication of southern craftsmen and their society. Also, Bryding Adams of MESDA will be lecturing on "Southern Decorative Arts: Some Recent Discoveries", at the KENTUCKY MUSEUM on August 28 at 8:00 p.m.

The EIGHTH and NINTH FLOORS have been using LC classification numbers in place of range numbers on the stacks as a trail. A map or Floor Plan in the display case across from the elevator indicates the appropriate ranges for particular LC numbers. So far comments have been favorable from both staff and patrons. Anyone wishing to express ideas about this arrangement should please get in touch with the floor librarians.

A Summer Art Workshop for Children is underway in the KENTUCKY MUSEUM. Fourteen children, ages 9 to 14, are registered in the two-week project. The workshop consists of daily sessions of art appreciation and studio activities. Completed art works by participants will be on display in the MUSEUM'S SCHOOL GALLERY during the month of August. Deborah Munsir, a senior art student, is coordinating the workshop.

JUDY BURKE will be joining the staff and will be working with the OCR project.

Did you see RILEY HANDY, NANCY BAIRD, and HARRY JACKSON on WBKO's "Community Speaks" on Sunday, July 27?

NELDA SIMS and Tony Staynings enjoyed their trip to England; Tony will be going on to Moscow as a member of the Great Britain Olympic Team.

THE KENTUCKY MUSEUM is recruiting volunteers to assist in its expanded programs. Two areas need help: The Museum Store needs workers and the Education program needs guides for adult and children's tours. Volunteers are being asked to work a minimum of 6 and a maximum of as many hours as they would like, provided work is in 3 hour shifts. Those wanting further details should phone A. T. STEPHENS at the MUSEUM, 2592.

An article entitled "Job Permanency: the Academic Librarians's dilemma is the Administrator's Challenge for the 80's" by DIANE RUTLEDGE has been accepted for publication by The Journal of Academic Librarianship. Good job, Diane - we're all looking forward to reading it!

From the recent CIS/Index Highlights: Government and Innovation: University-Industry Relations, a Committee hearing from the House Science and Technology Committee - if you're interested in this publication, contact Government Documents.

THE KENTUCKY BUILDING reopened during the July-the-Fourth weekend with a good crowd and high spirits. The staff and faculty of the LIBRARY and MUSEUM want to thank their colleagues "on the hill" for their help and support.

A number of faculty and staff members have recently expressed a wish for a re-evaluation of the current needs for handicapped parking in the rear lot. Would it be possible to request such a re-evaluation by Public Safety?

NEW MOVES

The Office of the Director has moved to Helm Library, Offices 101-103. The new telephone numbers are 745-2904 and 2905. The commonline numbers are still 47 for DEBBY and 48 for DR. WASSOM.

REG LASWELL has moved to Cravens 301-301A. Until the necessary phone changes have been made, Reg can usually be reached at 43 -- if no answer, call 44 and leave a message with the staff member who answers.

OCR UPDATE

A report on the progress of OCR is overdue. What began several weeks ago as an "experiment" has become a full book relabeling project under the very competent supervision of Ann Brown. Some minor problems have arisen as we expected, but so far the solutions have not been too difficult. Relabeling began on the 9th floor of Cravens, and a large portion of the H classification has been completed. The cooperation and assistance of Pat Bowen and her student assistants has helped greatly in assuring our initial success. The Department of Library Circulation Services has helped keep things rolling by supplying student assistants to work on relabeling when they were not required elsewhere. The heat wave and broken air conditioner caused us to revise our initial plan of doing the relabeling on the floor where the books are shelved. At present the actual relabeling is being done in Helm 202. An outline for the relabeling of all collections has been compiled, and following the completion of Cravens 9th floor, the relabeling team will be moving to the Science Library. This week Carolyn Boles and her staff in the ERC began relabeling their books which are classified in H.

The OCR wand at the Circulation Desk on Cravens 4th floor is operational. The staff in Circulation have been trained in its use, and indeed it is being used to check-out and check-in books which have been relabeled. There have been some problems getting the wands at the Cravens and Helm exits operational. At present, any book which has been relabeled must be taken to the Circulation Desk for check out.

---Thanks to Reg Laswell for this update.

Whenever a librarian serves on a new committee, everyone else on the floor falls heir to some new duties. Such is the case with the BOB and FINA team for Library Services Notes and All About Us. Thanks to the duo for reporting, writing, typing, editing, and cartooning. Additional thanks to JEAN ALMAND for her publication dedication and expertise. Please, Trio, keep coming to our aid!

SO NICE TO HEAR. . .

NEW SEASON, NEW CAST -- ANN BROWN and PEGGY WRIGHT have replaced BOB TUREK and JEAN ALMAND as editors of the library publications All About Us and Library Services Notes. ANN and PEGGY will share co-editing chores with A.T. Stephens. DEBBY SMITH will continue as managing editor.

Twenty-four people attended the retirement dinner in honor of ELIZABETH DINNING September 23 at Lone Oak restaurant. ELIZABETH retired September 30 after ten years of service in Cravens Library. We will miss her, but wish her well.

JANICE HALEY has replaced ELIZABETH DINNING in Data Processing and JUDY BURKE is a Technical Services Assistant working with serials in JANICE'S former position.

We are happy to have NELDA WYATT back in Cravens Library. She is now a Technical Services Assistant in Serials Acquisitions and the Bindery.

JO ANN MITCHELL is temporarily substituting as an ATS operator for TERESA TAYLOR who is recovering from neck surgery.

ELLEN MICHELETTI has joined the library staff full time. Formerly with KENCLIP, she has been assigned to the relabeling project.

Welcome back HANCY STEEN who is returning to work after a leave of absence.

MARY STAHL has returned from a trip to Europe. She visited her daughter in Germany and her father in England.

BLANCHE PARRENT, SALLY ANN KOENIG, and SUSAN TUCKER are members of the Bowling Green Singers. The first performance of the year will be October 11 with the Owensboro Symphony Orchestra. The work? ... the incomparable Beethoven's Ninth Symphony.

A further musical note: MOTHER (Sally) ANN modestly led her followers through ten "smashing hit" performances before record crowds at last weekend's Pleasant Hill Shaker Festival.

Congratulations to JAMIE and David CARROLL on the birth of their son, JOSHUA DAVID, on September 12.

It's nice to have JO KIBBEE and her scrumptuous baked goodies back among us again.

Library Services will add another DEBORAH SMITH to its ranks this week as the new KENTUCKY MUSEUM Registrar. MS. SMITH, a graduate of the Winterthur/University of Delaware program in American Culture, interned in Registration at the Strong Museum, Rochester.

Acquisitions Librarian DIANE RUTLEDGE has written an article to be included in a future issue of the Journal of Academic Librarianship, "Job Permanency: The Academic Librarian's Dilemma is the Administrator's Challenge for the 1980's."

The September/October edition of Back Home in Kentucky includes an article by VICKY MIDDLESWARTH-KOHN on the Kentucky Museum's exhibit "Artists of Kentucky." The feature is the second in a series of articles on the Kentucky Library and Museum. VICKY, by the way, was "promoted" from Education Assistant to Assistant Curator of Education in September.

DID YOU KNOW?

Behind the elevators on the fifth floor of Cravens, two oil paintings from the Art Department decorate the wall and highlight a bright spot for studying.

The OCR RELABELING PROJECT is well underway now. The collection on the 9th floor has been completed as well as the Science Library and part of the holdings at the ERC. Relabeling is taking place now in the basement of Helm in the Juvenile H,J,K's and the technical collection located there. The move will then be made to Cravens 5th floor to relabel the L's and B's.

On October 1, the COFFEEPOT will be moved from the lounge on 2nd floor Cravens to room 301. Cabinet space will be provided in this room for storage of cups. Cups can be filled on 3rd and taken to 2nd.

The cover of the current issue of Heritage News features a photograph of the title panel of the KENTUCKY MUSEUM'S "Main Street" exhibit. Heritage News is the bi-monthly newsletter of the Kentucky Heritage Commission. The July/August issue highlights Main Street Revitalization Programs across the state.

ACADEMIC COUNCIL

Three faculty members from Academic Services participated in the initial meeting of the Academic Council for the 1980-81 academic year: SALLY ANN KOENIG, ROBERT TUREK, and DIANE RUTLEDGE.

Member SALLY ANN will serve on the Academic Requirements and Regulations Committee. BOB and DIANE begin the first of their two year terms and will work together on the General Education Committee. BOB will also serve on the Rules Committee while DIANE sits on Academic Requirements and Regulations. Alternates for the year include NANCY BAIRD, PAT HODGES, and DR. WASSOM.

FACULTY SENATE

If you have thoughts you'd like to voice, Academic Services has strong representation on the Faculty Senate in the persons of PATRICIA BOWEN, CONNIE FOSTER, PENNY HARRISON, VIRGINIA NEEL and ED COUNTS.

Meetings are open and are held every second Thursday at three o'clock.

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES

October 15-17, 1980. SOUTHEASTERN MUSEUMS CONFERENCE ANNUAL MEETING, Little Rock and Hot Springs, Arkansas.

October 16-18, 1980. AMERICAN FOLKLORE SOCIETY ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Pittsburgh, PA.

THE UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN of Bowling Green is now underway on campus. WKU's goal is $25,000. Of the funds raised, 87% is spent locally for services under the following areas: Health Services (Arthritis Foundation, Crippled Children, Mental Health-Mental Retardation, American Red Cross); Community Services (Salvation Army, USO, Humane Society); Youth Services (Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Boy's Club, Boy Scouts, Carver Community Center, Girl's Club, Girl Scouts). In Library Services, departmental chairpersons have been named who will distribute literature and a card upon which you can indicate the cash contribution to this worthy program. Let's strive for 100% participation! Library Services in the past has had an excellent record of giving and participation. The deadline for submitting your pledge and gift is November 26, 1980.

PENNY HARRISON attended the national meeting of the Society of American Archivists in Cincinnati the week of September 29th. Highlights from the meeting were visits to the Cincinnati Historical Society's manuscript collection, the Art Museum's archives and a seminar answering the question "When is a Collection Processed?". Penny was also impressed by the Skywalk and taken with the variety of quick eating places near the hotel that took dieters into consideration.

The Kentucky Council on Archives and Tennessee Archivists are coming to the KENTUCKY BUILDING on November 18th for their fall meeting. The jointly sponsored program will include a buffet address by U.S. Archivists Robert Warner, NARS; a presentation on copyright issues by Barbara Vandergrift from the White House Historical Association, Washington, D.C.; and a panel discussion on the use of SPINDEX in the Kentucky Guide Project. For further information, contact PENNY HARRISON at the Kentucky Library.

University President DONALD ZACHARIAS will be lecturing in THE KENTUCKY MUSEUM on Thursday, November 20th on Kentucky politician John J. Crittenden. Zacharias's presentation, entitled "John J. Crittenden: The Lawyer," will deal largely with his subject's public addresses. The lecture is scheduled for 8:00 pm.

IRA KOHN, BOB BRIGL, DEBBIE SMITH and VICKY MIDDLESWARTH-KOHN attended the Kentucky Association of Museums annual meeting in Fort Knox, Kentucky on October 31st. A panel discussion on security requests and realities included the forthright participation of Exhibits curator IRA KOHN.

THIS PAST SUMMER, HELEN SKEES graduated 3 kids, married off 2, escaped to Puerto Rico and is presently awaiting a nervous breakdown...watch out, Helen, Thanksgiving dinner is just around the corner.

SOUTHEASTERN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION will meet November 19-22 in Birmingham, Alabama.

It was good to see BETTY BRIGHTUP last week. She visited here from Dallas.

Gamma Sigma Sigma Service Sorority is doing volunteer work in the KENTUCKY MUSEUM'S GIFT SHOP. By the way, it's worth a visit to explore the variety of unique gift possibilities available there.

PHYLLIS POTTER attended the annual conference of the American Folklore Society in Pittsburgh, October 15-19.

SUSAN TODD recently enjoyed a vacation in Michigan. Glad you got there while the weather was nice, Susan.

LOOK AT YOUR COM CATALOG! In addition to your A-T master, A-T updates, Subject master and Subject updates, you also have a Micro A-T and Subject master. These new parts of your catalog contain entries for Microforms. Before requesting out-of-print books, you might want to check the Micro master.

TURN YOUR DIAL TO 88.9 at 11:00 am November 8 and participate in an historic moment-- the official sign-on of WKU's new FM station. If you stay tuned until the next ALL ABOUT US, you will be introduced to its staff and services.

"Map/Artifact," a traveling exhibit organized by the Kentucky Arts Commission, will be on display in the KENTUCKY MUSEUM from November 5 through December 19. The exhibit features 28 maps on loan from four major repositories, including Western's KENTUCKY LIBRARY. The maps date from 1720 to 1978 and include state, county, military and geological survey maps. The exhibit, which illustrates historical and artistic aspects of cartography, will be housed in the museum's Gallery J.

HOME REMEDIES TO THE RESCUE. . . Would anyone who knows successful techniques for removing ball point pen marks from vinyl chairs and wall covering please share this knowledge with the editors?

PAT BOWEN Distributives Her Aging Bibliography - Limited copies of "Gerontology - A Bibliography of Selected Resources" are still available, warm off the press. Completed as part of a faculty research grant, the bibliography identifies the holdings of WKU's libraries by location and an area-related LC Subject Headings listing. Typically, however, there is no rest for the weary and a supplement is already underway.

As usual, EVELYN THURMAN has been busy: September 24, she led a 3 hour "in-service" workshop on Storytelling for 67 Hopkins County teachers and librarians at Madisonville, Kentucky; a week later Evelyn attended the Third District Library Association meeting. In addition, her article "Rebecca Caudill: A Personal View" has been published in the Fall '80 issue of the Kentucky Library Association Bulletin.

PEGGY WRIGHT spoke to the Catholic Women's Organization on European shrines to the Virgin Mary on October 23rd.

KLA was well attended by Western Librarians October 15-17 in Louisville. Those attending were DR. WASSOM, RICHARD JONES, PAUL RILEY, LINDA ALLAN, JEAN ALMAND, CONNIE FOSTER, JANICE MASANNAT, BECKY MOORE, CAROLYN BOLES, DIANE RUTLEDGE, PEGGY WRIGHT.

A new graduate assistant, MELODY NATCHER, replaces HILARY ALLEN in the relabeling project.

We will miss WYCLIFFE LARMON as a checker in Helm-Cravens Library. She is retiring November 26, after 15 years of service.

POSITION VACANCY: Library Technical Services Assistant III in Acquisitions. For details, contact JANICE MASANNAT or REG LASWELL.

JONES-JAGGERS Center for Child Learning and Study will sponsor a Paperback Book Fair November 17-21.

LINDA ALLAN, SARA SCOTT, and ELIZABETH COSSEY attended a meeting at the University of Louisville on October 17 of Kentucky Music Librarians, a newly formed organization.

Thirty-four Bowling Green High School students from a Data Processing class toured CIRCULATION and TECHNICAL SERVICES on October 31 to view applications of data processing.

HAVE A FEW SPARE MINUTES? Wander into Reference sometime and look over the Vance Bibliographies (ref z 5942 .C6x). Published by the Council of Planning Librarians and indexed in Bibliographic Index, the bibliography is largely used by students and faculty in urban studies, architecture and historic preservation.

December 1980

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES

JEAN ALMAND, LINDA ALLAN, and PAT BOWEN attended the Southeastern Library Association Conference in Birmingham, Nov. 19-21.

Welcome to our new checker, MR. WALTER GEIER.

A class in library automation from Peabody/Vanderbilt toured Circulation and Technical Services in our library Tuesday, Nov. 18th. REG LASWELL, SALLY ANN KOENIG, LUCY DANIELS, LINDA ALLAN, ROSE DAVIS and PEGGY WRIGHT participated.

WILMA ADCOCK's crocheted Christmas ornaments and gifts were featured in the Nov./Dec. issue of Back Home in Kentucky.

Tuesday, Nov. 18 LINDA ALLAN and DEBBY SMITH attended a workshop on assertive behavior led by Retta Poe and Lois Layne. This was sponsored by the Women's Alliance at WKU.

JANICE MASANNAT, PAUL RILEY, and ROSE DAVIS recently gave tours through Acquisitions, Serials, and Data Processing for the Library Automation class here at WKU.

JO ANN MITCHELL has assumed a full-time position in Acquisitions beginning Nov. 24th. She is currently filling a temporary vacancy for TERESA TAYLOR who continues to recover from neck surgery.

MICHAEL THOMAS FOSTER, infant son of CONNIE and TOM FOSTER, remains in intensive care at Vanderbilt Hospital. Michael, born Nov. 3 at 8:48 pm now weighs 2 lbs., 9 oz. and is 15 inches long. His condition is stable and we all look forward to his homecoming! In the interim, we enjoy having Connie with us again.

EVELYN THURMAN does it again! Part one of her article "The Wilders in Louisiana" has appeared in the Nov. '80 issue of NOTES, a publication of the Laura Ingalls Wilder Society. Part Two will follow in the next issue.

"MapARTifact" continues its run in the KENTUCKY MUSEUM through Dec. 19. The exhibit of historic maps borrowed from state collections is being circulated by the Kentucky Arts Commission.

Western's Chamber Singers and Little People and Co., a puppet theatre group, will be featured performers during the MUSEUM's "American Christmas" program. The Chamber Singers will perform a variety of folksongs, choruses based on psalms, secular pieces and contemporary music at 8:00 pm, Dec. 5. On Saturday, Dec. 6 at 2:00 pm, Little People and Co. will provide an entertaining half-hour of songs, jokes and poems of the Christmas season for children of all ages. The "American Christmas" exhibit program will combine discussion and craft activities evolving around Victorian Christmas customs. Group programs will be scheduled several times during regular hours. For further information, phone the Museum.

In these days of resignations
It is oftentimes a question
As to who is here and who has gone away.
For services, academic,
A plague we call endemic
Has beleaguered all the crew that's left behind.

A wee transfer will get you someday
A wee transfer will come behind you one day
And it'll lure you to a new post
And will take you to a new host—
While the rest of us just sit and wave goodbye.

Farewell, first to A.T., Ms. Larmon and Miss F.
To Phyllis P. and Paul Riley—
Now, who, my friends, is left?

Retirements:

Imogene Foster. An extended coffee-break was held in the Alumni House on Nov. 25th honoring Miss Foster's fifteen years of service to Western.

Wycliffe Larmon. A retirement dinner was given in honor of MRS. LARMON's fifteen years as a checker on Friday November 21 at Lone Oak Restaurant.

Resignations:

A.T. Stephens. A.T. Stephens has left the KENTUCKY MUSEUM to accept the position of Administrative Associate at the Reynolds House Museum of American Art in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Paul Riley. PAUL RILEY has accepted a position as Assistant Serials Librarian at Tulane starting Jan. 5. His work will include serials acquisitions and cataloging.

Phyllis Potter. Escaping to the West for a brief respite. To an avocado farm. Doing nothing. Wish we could tag along! Congratulations on your article in St. Peter's Jokes. And the article about the article. Keep them coming!
